

Conversations...

Exploring health care issues that affect our community.

Northumberland Hills Hospital and the volunteers in the NHH Foundation's Caring for Generations Society are pleased to announce the next speaker in a new series designed to encourage discussion and debate around issues affecting local health care.

Please join us for a conversation with journalist and author André Picard.

National public health reporter and senior staffer with The Globe and Mail, André Picard has penned numerous best-selling books and in-depth news reports on the most pressing health-care concerns of our age.

Coming this spring to Port Hope's historic Capitol Theatre, Mr. Picard will share his unique national perspective on our province's health care challenges and opportunities. Discussion to follow.

When: Wednesday, April 27th, 7:00 PM

Where: Capitol Theatre, Port Hope

LIMITED # of TICKETS AVAILABLE - ON SALE NOW!

$10 in advance/$15 at the door

Buy online at www.nhh.ca or at the Foundation office,
1000 DePalma Drive, Cobourg, ON K9A 5W6
weekdays, 8:00am-4:00pm.

For further information, call (905) 372-6811 ext. 3066

