

BRENDA WALLACE

Candidate for the office of CFUW National President, 2010-2012

Brenda Wallace possesses the leadership qualities, experience, and motivation necessary to serve as the national President of CFUW.

Her colleagues in CFUW Regina consider her outstanding leadership qualities to be the following. She:

- Is well organized, listens to others, plans and keeps to a schedule. She has the ability to oversee a project, calmly and confidently to completion.
- Delegates effectively by mobilizing the strengths of members. She coordinated the CFUW National Annual General Meeting in Regina in 2004.
- Mentors and supports colleagues in such club events as celebrating International Women's Day.

Brenda has served CFUW for many years. With CFUW Regina she has held the offices of President twice, Vice President, membership, archives, and has been a member of the club Scholarship Committee. As well, she was an active participant in fund-raising activities such as the gala dinner, celebrity fashion shows, silent auctions, and garage sales.

Brenda has served as President of Saskatchewan Council and Vice-President of the Prairies with dedication and perseverance. She attended the National CFUW Annual General Meetings in Wolfville (2003), Regina (2004), Oakville (2005), Vancouver (2007), Montreal (2008), and Winnipeg (2009).

For 25 of her 35 years as a public school teacher, Brenda supervised interns for the Faculty of Education, University of Regina.

Living and working in Germany for three years enabled Brenda to travel in Europe. Further travel to Egypt, Morocco, China, Japan, Bali, Mexico and the Caribbean enriched her understanding of other people and cultures in the world.

Youthful, energetic, and unencumbered by immediate family responsibilities, Brenda is ready and prepared to be a dynamic agent of positive change as President of CFUW.

Respectfully submitted,

Elaine Yeomans, Past President, CFUW Regina
